

GOVERNANCE IN PROVIDING REMUNERATIONS

measurement method and types of risk in determining the provision of variable remuneration according to the scale and complexity of Bank Mandiri's business activities. In determining the remuneration policy, Bank Mandiri takes into account the types, criteria, impacts and changes in determining the main types of risk in determining remuneration.

Performance Measurement Related to Remuneration

In providing remuneration, Bank Mandiri conducts performance measurements related to remuneration including a review of remuneration policies related to performance assessments, methods of linking individual remuneration with Bank Mandiri performance, work unit performance and individual performance and methods used by Bank Mandiri to certify performance (key performance indicators) that has been agreed upon cannot be achieved so it is necessary to make adjustments to the remuneration as well as the amount of remuneration adjustment if this condition occurs.

The application of the remuneration strategy is also carried out by taking into account the performance of each individual employee, the performance of the work unit and the overall performance of the Bank, but still within the stipulated budget. In general, in implementing total rewards, Bank Mandiri provides salaries, annual salary adjustments, holiday allowances (THR), annual leave fees, and large leave pay for each 3 (three) year working period. Bank Mandiri also provides health facilities for employees and their family members, including inpatient care, outpatient care, childbirth, dental care, General Check Up, eyeglasses and the health program for Bank Mandiri retirees.

Remuneration Adjustment Related to Performance and Risk

Bank Mandiri provides variable remuneration, namely remuneration related to performance and risk, including bonuses, rewards/ performance incentives or other equivalent forms. Remuneration in the form of bonuses, rewards, incentives can be given in the form of cash, shares or share-based instruments issued by Bank Mandiri with special provisions for the benefit of the Board of Commissioners given in cash to avoid conflict of interest in carrying out supervision.

External Consultant Services

To find out the position of the Bank's remuneration against market conditions, every year Bank Mandiri participates in the Annual Salary Survey which is conducted by an independent and competent third party. The results of the study from the survey were used as a basis for adjusting the remuneration strategy of Bank Mandiri which would then be proposed at the Board of Directors Meeting for approval.

Process for Preparation of Remuneration Policy

Remuneration policy was one of the important factors in obtaining and/or maintaining employees, executive officers, Directors and Board of Commissioners who were competent and qualified. It was the Bank's strategy in providing rewards according to the ability of Bank Mandiri in accommodating changes in employee demographics, management of labour costs, and to encourage the achievement of Bank Mandiri's business objectives.

Bank Mandiri's remuneration was prepared with the aim of being able to attract, maintain, motivate, and increase the commitment of employees to continuously provide optimal performance as well as to support Bank Mandiri's vision, mission and strategy.

Bank Mandiri's considerations when preparing the remuneration policy:

1. Financial performance and reserve fulfilment as stipulated in the applicable laws and regulations.
2. Remuneration that is adapted to the industry in accordance with the Company's business activities and the scale of the company's business in the industry.
3. The duties, responsibilities and authorities of members of the Board of Directors and members of the Board of Commissioners related to the achievement of the Company's goals and performance.
4. Target or performance of each member of the Board of Directors and/or members of the Board of Commissioners in order to achieve equality
